ENNIES CODE OF CONDUCT

We agree...

1. to provide one copy of each product entered to each awards judge and an additional sixth copy to the awards organization;
2. that, upon submission, these copies become property of the awards and remain so in perpetuity, including in the event of product disqualification or ineligibility;
3. to assume all shipping costs possible and bear sole responsibility for distribution of products to judges and to the organization;
4. to refrain from attempts to directly influence individual judges through
 - a. private correspondence not made available to every judge and to the organization,
 - b. provision of additional ineligible published material unless (i) approved by the board and (ii) provided to all judges equally,
 - c. promises of future ineligible material, employment or other material benefits;
5. to respect the one person = one vote principle upon which the awards are based and neither
 - a. cast more than one vote per person, or
 - b. induce or instruct other individuals to cast multiple votes or otherwise vote fraudulently;
6. not to publicly attack or otherwise bring into disrepute the fairness of the awards process.
